

Gray Birch,

Melrose. Nov. 19.

My dear Miss Vedder;

I do know your
name perfectly well,
and, if I am not-
mistaken, in a very pleasant connection-
that of the poetry prize offered by Mr. Mansfield.
May I send you my

book I send you my warm thanks. It is a great pleasure, when one suffers from many misgivings, to be reassured in this way. And I am extremely sorry that I missed the note concerning our nearest neighbors.
Did you not realize how much I should have liked to get it?

Gratefully yours,
Margaret Sherman

Congratulations, and also a plea that you go on writing? Our country needs its poets more than it needs anything else.

I do not remember
the remark you made
in regard to Literature?
but I am glad that I ever said anything
so sensible when seated
at that office desk.

For all that you
say about my little

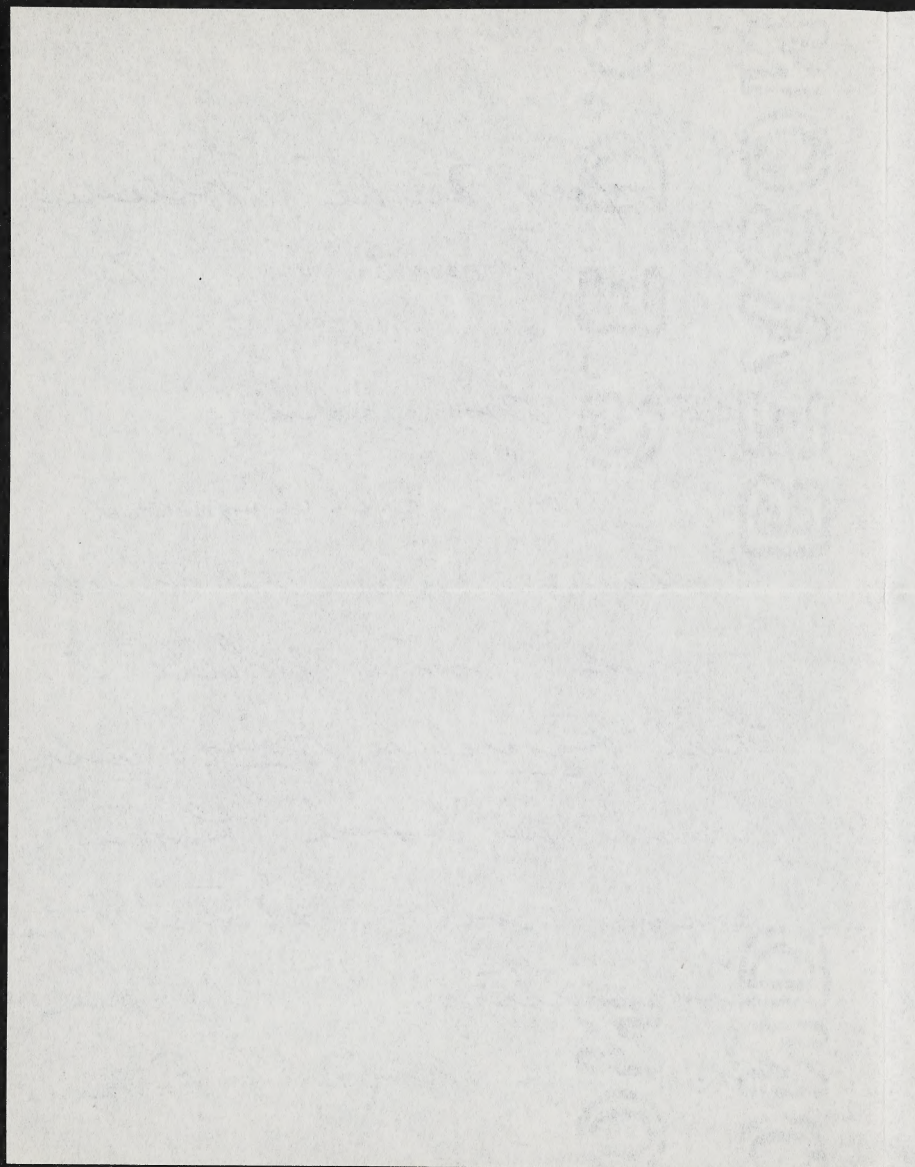

For all that you think
say about me this
at that you think is possible when I
of our kind company
that I am glad that is regard to business
the amount of money
I do not remember
then I need something
such as facts here
on writing? The number then a few at the 20
Conspicuous and

Grey Birch, Ellersley.
November 6, 1917.

My dear Miss Padden;

I am delighted
to know that you think it was worth while to put Familia Keys into print in book form,
and most grateful to you
for writing to tell me
so. Your sister of a year.

ago, speaking approvingly
of one of these papers.
Helped me in summoning Carrage to collect - The fugitive sketches.

But - they certainly are not - worthy to drive you to tea and board - and jam.
Please not -!

With my warm thanks
for your note,

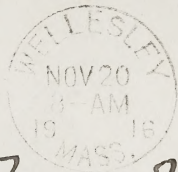

Very sincerely,

Margaret-Chernood.

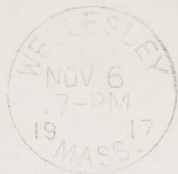

My dear friend
I have just received your letter of the 10th inst.
and am glad to hear
that you are well.
I am well and hope
this will find you the same.
I have not much news
to write at present.
I am, dear friend,
Very sincerely,
Your friend,
Wm. Lloyd Garrison

Mrs Miriam Fiddler,
Lroy Road,
Schenectady,
N. York.

Mrs Miriam Vedder,
99 Claremont-Avenue,
New York City.

Author

letters
(2)

1917